End of Report

Important: This report is provided pursuant to your Service Application and Agreement and must only be used in strict compliance with the terms thereof. As such, this report and the information contained herein must be held in strict confidence and must be used solely for tenant screening purposes. If you intend to take an adverse action based either in whole or in part on the contents of this report, you must comply with the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act \(FCRA\) governing the use of consumer reports and the taking of adverse actions, including but not limited to providing the applicant with a copy of this report and the Federal Trade Commission's publication, A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. Express Screening has previously provided your company with copies of this publication, and you can obtain additional copies by clicking the hyperlink above.

Important Note: When screening a candidate for a criminal background we recommend that you use our On-Site Courthouse Search in those locales where the candidate has lived for the preceding 7 years. The National Criminal Report is a valuable resource but it only utilizes records that are available electronically. Criminal records are available electronically in many but not all U.S. states and counties, and even when available they may be incomplete.

Read this note from TVS: Where a record is displayed with the same name... a similar or a common name and there are 0 matches, then you should conduct further due diligence to determine whether the named Individual is your Prospective Tenant or not.

- Check the record for a physical description. Does it match the Prospective Tenant?
- Check for a middle name. Does it match middle name of Prospective Tenant as per credit report? OR check I.D. for middle name.
- Ask the Prospective Tenant if he/she has ever been convicted of stated offence(s). If reply is yes you will know. If reply is no then consider the following.
- If Prospective Tenant meets all other landlord criteria i.e. stable employment, solid reference from current landlord, credit worthiness and you have taken action as noted above, then your decision to lease should be based on all of the criterion... The possibility of the record belonging to the Prospective Tenant in this instance is likely remote if all due diligence has not produced a positive match.
